NEW YORK, THURSDAY, JANUARY 1, 1891.

WE SHALL

HONEST

WE SHALL

BEAR IN MIND

THE SAYING COPPATHER

ODE KNOWS ASSOUN

U.S. SENATORS

ENDEAVOR TO BE

BANK BURCLARS

INDIAN AGENTS

KEEP

Morro Pr

CLERN-

THOU SHALL

STREETS

NEW LEAVES.

CAVE OF

OTHER

WE SHALL TRY

A GREEMENT WE

PRESIDENTS

TO KEEP THE

HAVE ENTERED

RALROAD

A Great Hit!

THE WAR STORIES BY VETERANS IN THE MORNING WORLD (METROPOLIS VMETROPOLIS EDITION).

PRICE ONE CENT.

THEY TAKE OFFICE

Mayor Grant, Sheriff Gorman and Transit by Train and Ferry Other Officials Inducted.

Annexed District Commissioner Church Services, Receptions and Heintz's Anti-Tammany Staff.

Sistrict-Attorney Nicoll and Comptroller Myers Begin Their Terms.

The usual New Year's greeting to incoming at the City Hall, Post Office, Custom House municipal officials was to-day tendered those and other public buildings, this morning, but who were fortunate enough to prevail at the as most citizens didn't take the trouble to polls last November.

his office, did not expect a reception of any | so dense that they could hardly be discessed sort, but concluded to spend a snort time at the City Hall.

He was surprised to find a bost of friends awaiting his arrival when he appeared at horns, beating of equally detestable gongs and floral horse-hoe, more than six feet in height, of small boys galore who had neither whistles, which was a remembrance from the attaches

Among the Mayor's numerous callers most recently arrived Mongolian from the were Commissioner of Public Works Gil-roy, Police Commissioner Martin, Police way of celebrating the birth of a new year. McMahon, Divver and Ryan, Assemblymen Duffy, Connoity and Sulzer, Tax Commissioner Feitner, Corporation Coun sel Clark, Aldermen Morgan, Duffy, Flynn and Brown, Fire Commissioners Purroy, Robbins and Eicknoff, Chamberlain Crain and Deputy Chamberlain Campbell, ex-Assistant Corporation Counsel Thomas P. Wickes. Supervisor Kenny of the City Record, Ex-Beputy Sheriff Lawrence Delmour, Fred Gerken, Emanuel Freind, Chief Clerk Daly of the C.ty Court, City Court Judges Ehrlich, Fitzsimons and Van Wyck; Commissioner Heintz, of the Annexed District; Jacob Seabold, Wm. H. Dobbs,

Commissioner of Accounts Holahan, Deputy Coroner Jenkins, Peter Mitchell, George Kraus, ex-Assemblyman James Oliver and James W. Boyle. NOW DISTRICT-ATTORNEY DE LANCEY NICOLL. The old and the new District-Attorneys arrived at the old brown-stone Court-House at 11.30 o'clock this morning, and Col. Fellows for mally turned the office over to his successor. Mr. Nicoli's appointees were all in waiting to be sworn in, and the District-Attorney, with nis private secretary, Henry W. Unger, made it their first business to fill out certificates of Recorder Smyth was on band, and, as soon as all the certificates were made out, he administered the oath of office to the entire force of subordinates. Mr. Nicoll's desk was decorated by a basket of rare flowers, with the compliments of Col.

Fellows, and a floral horseshoe from Deputy Assistant Wauhope Lynn. SUBRIFF GORMAN TAKES POSSESSION. There was an odor of newness about the Sheriff's office in the new County Court-House this morning. It was not attributable, however, to the arrival of a new Sheriff with new subordinates in the building, but proceeded from some fresh paint on a sign which read "Daniel E. Sickles, Late Sheriff. A little corner of the office has been set apart for the use of Gen. Sickles, where he will complete the business which has been left over from his administration.

Sheriff Gorman did not errive until no and was kept busy for an hour or more in qualifying his subordinates and in receiving congratulations, which poured in on him by

NO TAMMANY MEN ON BEINTZ'S STAFF. Nowhere was the jollification over an acces ion to office greater than in the Annexed Disrict among the friends of Louis J. Heintz, who o-day became the Commissioner of Street Imvements for the Twenty-third and Twentyourth Wards.

Heintz had won a notable victory over he Tammany forces in a battle where the figwam had prevalled in every other part of ne field, and hundreds of the men who made e fight with him called on and congratulated im at the new Department offices, at One undred and Forty-first street and North hird avenue, to-day.

Commissioner Heintz kept the names of the ordinates whom he would appoint very ecret until after the Board of Estimate had ally closed the budget, and then named a taff on which there is not a single Tamming

His deputs will be John H. J. Ronner, former ammany leader of the Annexed District, who ill draw a salary of $3,500 a year. He also names Ex-Alderman James J. Mooney

General Inspector. Mr. Mooney is the exbunty Democracy leader. J. Thomas Stearns, Republican leader in the fwenty-fourth Ward, is Superintendent of Streets and Roads. His chief clerk is W. H. Ten Eyck, the Republican leader of the Commissioner Heintz also retained J. Greifenberg as First Assistant Engineer of the Topographical Bureau, and Samuel C. Thomp son as First Assistant Englueer in the Construction Bureau

These men were in the employment of the Park Department.

FLOWERS FOR COUNTY CLERK GIEGERICH. County Clerk Leonard A. Giegerich was the session of his office this morning. He strived man House, the gorgeous Hotel Imperial, the were ke st about 10 o'clock, but he found that some of quiet but solid Sturtevant House and the big measure.

reception room was a magnificent bank of the printed for judicious distribution, and patrons rarest and most beautiful blooms that the not of the art gallery had their choice of no less houses can afford. Nestled at the very apex than thirty-two different creations of the of this mountain of giorious beauty was a card cuisine prepared by Chef Gustave Moulle.

At the St. James. Chef Jean Roth started

. Giegerich's Deputy, and the latter ake the oath of office. Among them were the M. McGoldrick. Clerk of Part II. of the with awests.

The Startevant House people believed in support I. I. William Lamb, jr. Clerk of the Grant I Term, Julius Weber, Clerk, and George on the Miles of the Mil

HAPPY NEW YEAR.

Dense Fog and Rain Usher in the First Holiday of 1891.

Greatly Impeded.

Spreads Mark the Day's Celebration.

ascend to the roofs they were not aware of the Mayor Grant, who was simply re-elected to presence of the starry banners, for the fog was from the street.

The day was ushered in with the blowing of steam whisties, tooting of abominable tin A further surprise was a mammoth drums, firing of bombs and gans, and yelling horns, gongs, drums, bombs nor guns. It would be interesting to know what the

> TIN HORNS DULLED THE CHIMES. To be sure, there were the chimes. Beauti ful music was pealed from the bells in the lofty spires of Old Trinity, Grace Church, St. Andrew's and other sanctuaries, but only now and then a soft musical note could be heard The celebration was carried on in a for a thick that it was impenetrable for more than an arm's length, but that did not dampen the mist that filled every nook and corner, and early pedestrians were chilled by the penetrating moisture.

permeating things.

NASTIEST OF AMERICAN STREETS. The thermometer said at 8 o'clock that the tem perature was just at the freezing point, but the rain falling upon the trodden and kneaded snow of a week ago made the road of the wayfarer soggy and nasty, and by 10 o'clock, when the there ometer registered 88 degrees in f . Ferry's pharmacy, the culmination of nastiness wer reached.

by the mushy meas.

on the fashionable avenues and drives on which a cutter could slip along easily, but the muggy sir, the rain, the damp chilliness made sieigh-riding anything but pleasurable, and tiful good cheer to their patrons. gave to the cheery fire indoors a specially inviting air.

the New Year's calling function was only a Tae lunches were spread at the noon hour function, even with the most persistent of and are to be served continuously un'il mid-New Year's callers who honored the time-worn night.

custom to-day. DECLINE OF THE " CALLING " CUSTOM.

any hope of retaining the gloss on his shirt off, from a weather standpoint, as any of the his polished allk tile. year to make up for its New Year behavior.

nicipality to the newly elected ones at noon, and there was more warmth and glow about the city buildings than anywhere else in town SERVICES IN THE CHURCHES. There were special services at many of the churches. Dr. Dix delivered a New Year sermon at Old Trinity to a small congregation masses were said at St. Patrick's Cathedral, and at St. Bartholomew's Church there was a splendid musical service. At Grace Church Dr. Huntington presided, and at most of the churches there was divine service.

A grand New Year reception at the Twenty third street branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, beginning at 2 o'clock this afternoon, will continue till 10 o'clock this evening, members and their friends participating.

The American Museum of Natural Bistory was thrown open free to the public for the day, and the privilege was enjoyed by thousinds. The programme at the Museum for the day included a free illustrated lecture of I'rof. Albert S. Bickmore at 2.30 this afternoon, on "Physical Geography and Scenery in New York State, the Highlands and Niagara." Nearly all the athletic clubs have programmes of sports for the day, some indoors, some out, and their programmes are being

LUNCHES AT THE BIG HOTELS, As is customary on New Year's Day, one lunches were served at popular Capt. Billy arm of the newly elected officials to take pos- Conner's St. James Hotel, the palattal Hoffwhite home of the horsemen, the Glisey. The ent re office was redolent of the odor of The Hoffman takes a high place in the list. choice flowers. Filed high on a table in the A specially engraved French menu card was

At the St. James, Chef Jean Roth started of the subordinates of the ex-Judge Capt. Conner's callers on pickled ojsters and priately remembered tim on the oc-als accession to a more temphera-vels of cookery, ending with Malaga grapes

Accompanying the new County Clerk were and hot-house tangerines, e outgoing Clerk, P. Joseph Scuily, and The friends of Stafford and Whittaker, at the Poet "Geogliegan. former was immediately sworn in as Hotel Imperial, were regaled in the Frenchest former was immediately sworn in as at a fashion, gastronomically speaking, by Chef Louis Ursprung, who laid out an appetizing

The new year begins very badly, indeed, it the consensus of New York opinion is to be accepted. There were flags displayed on the staffs way of celebrating the birth of a new year.

arder of the celebrante. The dawn found the city still shrouged in a

The air was filled with 90 per cent of hu midity, and shortly it condensed sufficiently to be dignified by the title of rain. A miserable, dispiriting rain it was, hardly falling, but jus

The stush and slop were more than ankle deep on every cros. walk, and every venturesome boot was soaked and made more sodden

Sleighing? Oh, yes, there was snow enough

Of course there was no sk ating and of course front, the curi in his mustache or the sheen on region whence he gets reports on a holiday. In short, 1891 has begun by making a bad impression, and it ought to be a very good old The old governors of the city turned over the insignia of office and the care of this mu-

At the Tombs a cheery musical service was conducted by Mrs. A. C. Taylor, contraits of carried out to the letter.

straches of the Department flocked in | Louis Ursprung, well and wasted no time

SPEAKERSHIP !TERM WHEN I GET IT T.B. REED

'I SHALL

MY NEXT

BEHAVE

MYSELF DURING

PRICES

TO KEEP

PLUMBERS

JANUARY WIND-Just wait until I blow a little blast and see how they'll scatter.

named chef d'œuvres. They consequently had an army of feeders all day. The Gilsey, the Brower and the Coleman those homes of sportsmen, all extended boun it as bad form.

NEW TEAR'S DAY WEATHER. As for the weather, it could not depr as the annual "At Home" cards for to-day, and those bad. Private Howe, in charge up to the who did received bedraggied and forlorn-look- Government weather tower on the Equitable ing men, for no one could venture out with building, declared that New York was as well all these cities.

bracing temperature of 12 degrees. Down in Maine it is clear and the temperature from 2 to 6 degrees above zero. Montana, Wyoming and Dakota are enjoying the same

New Year weather. FOGS BALEED THE WIRES. The fogs have partially lifted over the great miss last night, and Chief Operator Myers, in charge at the Western Union Telegraph office, says that every wire is working, not with

The fog was so dense last night for 200 miles the electicity that could be forced upon them. and literally no telegraphic reports came from that section. There was a six-mile breeze over New York

o-day, coming from the northeast, and the weather prophet says that the air will continue to grow warmer all day, the rain to fall and he beautiful snow to meet and resolve itself into a dew, to mix with the mud that Commissioner Beattle lorgot to remove last Fall. FERRIES HINDERED BY FOG AND ICE.

Navigation on the North and East rivers and on the bay has been very seriously impeded. Few crait except ferryboats ventures out at all, and these made infrequent trips at a min-The thaw loosened up the tre about the piers.

and the thousands of miniature floes added to the difficulties experienced by pilots in picking their way from alip to slip. There were, how ever, no accidents or collisions reported to Capt. Schmittberger's harvor police. Fog bells were kept constantly ringing as a precautionary Staten Island and South Ferry boats made regular tilps on a curtailed schedule, but they crept along very cautiously. Communipaw boats ran only on afteen-minute time, and this rate of speed was generally salopted on all ferries, the traffic being exceptionally light. Little trouble was reported at the Pennsylvanis, D., L. & W., and West Shore ferries, but the pilots on the Paventa boats complained a good deal of the floating ice, which seemed to bother them almost as much as the fug.

West atreet, that ordinarily overclowded erty, for her trat husband had left his estate a sight met his eyes ! thoroughfare, was almost deserted, and the Belt line car-drivers made the most of the infrequent opportunity to get their cars through Washington Market loomed dimly through Fifth Avenue Hotel proprietors. They regard The American Duchess Must Squeeze Along on $80,000 a Year.

Just think of it! Lily W. Price Churchill, Not many fashionable ladies had issued the New Year buoyancy if it were ten times as the Duchess of Mariborough, by the grace of innual. At Home "cards for to-day and those had. Private Howe, in charge up to the fortune that her first husband, Louis Hamereley, left her, will have to "ekimp" and squeeze slong on not more than seventy or egion whence he gets reports on a holiday.

It was raining at Rochester, Buffalo, Toronto, Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, Baltimore, more than most salesmen, bookseepers and the Philadelphia and Mil saukee, and the tempera- like carp, and about four hundred times as ture ranged from 32 degrees in New York up to much as the stately Lily ever handled before 46 degrees at Toledo, while there was from she married Louis Hamersley and was only the three to six inches of snow to make slush of in adorable daughter of Commodore Price, of the United States Navy, but the Duchess tearfully In Vermont, where the sky is clear, there is assures the courts that she really and truly eighteen inches of snow on the ground and a can't support her noble husband and maintain her position at the very top of the British peerage on less than all of her $130,000 net income from the estate that enabled her to get the Justice Beach says the American Duches will have to get along as best she can on the

the rate of $50,000 a year. President Williams, of the Chemical Bank, has | Robert. been directed to pay John Jaffiar, of Birming- | Little Bob, as his friends called him, seemed ham. England, as judgment creditor, $50,000 a saleep, as the upturnel face peered from a around Chicago that the wires leaked about all | year till the whole indeptedness is discharged, | bunch of white roses. His blonde hair was with interest. As the beautiful Duchess's in- brushed up carefully off his forehead and a debtedness is $684, 704. 31 already, it will be seen little smile seemed to part his lips, giving no that it will take something more than fourteen | indication of the horrible sufferings which years to pay up at this rate, wherefore the ended his young life. Duchess feels very hard up, indeed, and the new year opens gloomily for her. It all came about in this way: Lilian, when she married the Duke of Mariborough an June, and his five-year-old brother Louis were play-1898, found that that middle-aged scion of noulity had run through all the property that had left them Caristmas Eve. Their merry he could get hold of under the British laws. | laughter was heard all over the house. and Mariborough House and the entailed A string seemed lacking in the sport of these estate that came down all the way from the two happy children, and Bob tradged downgreat naval commander of the seventeenth stairs into the laundry to get the string. century, and which the Duke couldn't dispo e of under the law, was all run down. The father, woodwork needed a coat of paint, the trees and His father made a pleasant answer, and gave shrubs needed re-upholstering and the fences him the string. Bob did not seem same were bally out of repair.

Lily was equal to the occasion. She went to "Baby want more string; Louis want were bally out of repair. Lloyd's Bank and borrowed $161,658 Rovert place," he said. Harding Milward was touched by her distress | He received the additional piece, and growand loaned her $465,526 and John Jaffray let ing with childish pleasure he trudged back her have $49,008.

her to leave to the Jook of Marl' orough or any fame. other successor to Logis Hametsley. Attachments sletting a worstaken by hepary mack room and wrapped the little one, who Sheriff John M. Tricy for levy, but the was being rousted slive, tightly in it.

He began supplementary proceedings in Su- has an office just around the corner in Piftiett HER GRACE IS IN DISTRESS. He began supplementary proceedings in Su-preme Court, and William A. Duer was appointed referee to take testimony as to the engaged in dressing the little fellow's roasted Duchess's financial ability to pay her debts, fiesh, and he has reported that the Duchess gets Who $130,000 a year net from the Hameraley estate that every bit of clothing about the child's and can spare $50,000 a year just as well as not. knees had been burned off. Justice Beach has confirmed the report and The parents were at a loss to know what Eugene A. Georgie, a young telegraph opeach year from her and pay it on the judgments Court of Appeals for the setting saids of Louis eyes. Hamersley's will. If the ruit is won the Creditor Jaffray will get the amount of his chair and while rumaging among the things on proprietor, indores his denial. judgment in bulk.

THEIR BABY ROASTED ALIVE.

Little Robert Burczyk Was Playing with Matches.

In the front room over the laundry at 945 smaller figure, however, till the debts she has Second avenue, which is used as a sitting-room Western section that was buried in banks of contracted in England are paid up in full at and parlor by Valentine Burczyk, the proprietor, ley in white in a white cloth coffin this The trustee of the Louis Hamersley estate, morning the body of his three-year-old son

The little fellow was burned to death by playing with matches. About 11 o'clock vesterday morning little Bon ing in the parlor with the toys that Santa Claus

"Biby wants string, papa," said Bob to als

But the Duchess only smiled communicative, annury started for the stairs, Joseph twen-She had only this little income, and no prose- meyer was the first to reach the top, and what in trust for her use suring her life-but not for There a mod little flow, covered by a mass of Obermeyer puted a quitt from the bed in the last wife probable of gulit soon took fire, and snotter on

When the quitts were removed it was found

Meantime there is a suit pending in the they thought, away from the sight of prying skull received Christmas night while in a quar-A look showed the matches strewn about the saloon in West Twenty-ninth street.

morigages and other baubles outright, and vesled the cause of the trouble.

will still get the income of $2,000,000 worth of New York real estate. But in that event the parents could not tell, had climbed upon a into Miller's saloon to have Charles Miller, the Then came the fall of the body from the the mantel found the matches. they nad set on fire, the flame ignited the skirt above the bridge of the nose with a beer-glass. of the little frock that Robert wore. The flames spread rapidly, and soon his body was in thickness.

He rushed from the parlor to the bedroom, which was immediately in the rear, and out into the hall, where he was found. He remainded conscious till 5 o'clock, when he died. Mrs. Burczyk, who is a kindly-faced German woman, seemed almost heart-broken at the loss of the little one. The funeral will orcur this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

Three New Lighthouses.

ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD. I Bostov Dec 31 .- This evening the coast of Maine is brightened by light flashes from three new lighthouses. One of these is Lubee Narrowslight, between Eastport and Lubee Narrows light, between Eastport and the ocean, midway from the tower of Lubee to West Quaddy Light Station. The second of the new lights is on the southern extremity of Great Dutch Island, the outermost of the group of islands directly south of Mount Desert. From the nearest point of the latter it is about six miles. Westward from Dutch Island, between Mount Desert and Rockland, is the third light. It will be called Goose Rock Light.

Stole One Rib and Stabbed Another.

ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD. Assonia, Conn. Dec. 31.—Vincenzo de Brasco, cioped with the wife of Vincenzo Granto last night and ded to New Haven.

and from there took the night boat for New York, transite received word as short time the five the time set for the clopement and intried to his hours. He methas wife and prefer to the clopement and intried to his hours. He methas wife and prefer to the clopement and intried to his hours. He methas wife and prefer to the department.

Private Secretary Miss westoon and a force to one open and or or on the threshold. He attempted to the bepartment. Granito last night and fled to New Haven. Grantto last right, and fled to New Haven, and from there took the night loss for New York. Grantto received word a short time here to the time set for the clopens at an hurred to his home. He met his wife and here lover on the threshold. He attempted to stop them, but De Braseo drew kinds with the set for the clopens at the office of the Department. It is expected at the Office of the Department. The window was open. There were indicated to the Department. The window was open. There were indicated to the Department. The window was open. There were indicated to the Department. The window was open. There were indicated to the Department of the Department of the Department of the Department of t

Side by Side for Fifty Years.

Casasiors, N. Y., Dec. 31. disturbance at the residence of Farmer

----J. Calvet & Co.'s Clarets.

A Dublin Paper Declares That Such Is the Agreement,

Parnell, It Is Said, Will Act as Eartha McGowan Murdered by Either His Adviser.

Irish Home Rule Members Asked to Ratify This Plan.

[BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.] LONDON, Jan. 1 .- The Dubilu Express says it has good authority for stating that an amicable arrangement has been arrived at between the leaders involving the retirement of Mr. Parnel', the compromise on which it is based to be provisional until ratified by the general body of he Irish Home Rule members of Parliment.

It is further reported that it has been agreed that Mr. O'Brien shall take the leadership; that Mr. Dillon was informed by cable vesterday that Mr. O'Brien, in the event of assuming the leadership, would remain in Paris to direct affairs until after the general election, and that Mr. Parnell would continue to do service for the party by acting as his adviser.

the report received by cable this morning of amicable arrangement of the .. ifficulties beand the consent of Mr. Parnell to retire. When a reporter of THE EVENING WORLD that negotiations were still jending between the leaders, and he was hopeful that they would result satisfactorily to all. The only cablegrams that he had received in father is guilty. the past two days, he sa d, were of a confidential nature that he could not make public, and added that it was very probable if any adjust-it would be publicly announced on the other side before he would hear of it. The recent meeting between Mr. Parnell and believe was a friendly one, although the news- at the same trade. papers had reported that they had parted in

Mrs. O'Shea's Fortune and Reported Engagement to Parnell.

DUBLIN, Jan. 1. -The Insuppressible prints the statement that Mrs. O'Shea has compro mised with her family and agreed to take £50,000 under her aunt's will, instead of the £150,000 actually left her by that relative. It also reports that her marriage with Mr. Parnell will occur at the end of six months, then the decree of the divorce court will be MURDER WITH A BEER-GLASS

Telegrapher George Dies from Jack Fry's Blow.

matches, which were in a box on the mantel, street, died at the Roosevelt Respital at 10.40 behind some Christmas evergreens, and, as this morning from a compound fracture of the added, 'told them once or twice to shut up, and rel with Jack Fry in front of Charles Miller's Duchess will get $3,000,000 worth of bonds, mantel, and the burned string on the floor re-

Hot words ensued, and George went out to While holding a piece of the string, which the street followed by Fry, who struck George

The bottom of the glass was nearly an inch George s'aggered a few steps and fell to the idewalk. Fry excaped. When Coroner Messemer called to take the when Coroner acceled to take the alternative many the expected to die.

The jury empanelled in the case was composed of nurses and patients in Ward Five, and they remiered a verdict that George received his injuries by being struck by Jack Five.

The sistement was taken about 1, 30 o'clock por These sistement was taken about 1, 30 o'clock por These sistement was taken about 1, 30 o'clock por These sistement was taken about 1, 30 o'clock por These sistement was taken about 1, 30 o'clock por These sistement was taken about 1, 30 o'clock por These sistement was taken about 1, 30 o'clock por These sistement was taken about 1, 30 o'clock por These sistement was taken about 1, 30 o'clock por These sistement was taken about 1, 30 o'clock por These sistement would not any the sistem with the intention of saving her.

Her sitem with the intention of saving her.

Her sitem with the intention of saving her.

She could hold on no longer. Her voice be could hold on no longer. Her

UPPER BROADWAY CLEANED.

Beattle and a Big Force Hard at Work Since Midnight. Commissioner Beattle made his first on slaught on the lig appropriation for his Depariment for isel by making a determined ceived no answer.

effort at removing snow and ice from the Policeman W. E. Newsam, of the West Fortystreet, beginning at midnight. At that hour hundreds of cares, accompanied seventh street station, they found old man by about a thousand inborers, were rendez-The attac, on the dirty snow was kept up all

Our year Out., Dec. 31,-Col. Ashford. and loaned her $465,526 and John Jaffray let tog with childish pleasure he trudged back Prinder Mass. Dec. 31.—Col. Ashford, and the charge of the military forces in the upstairs.

All this money went to "fix up" the old Bob's mother was in the back room of the fidward Bunker calculated their golden Havainn Islands is here consulting with old man McGowan, but went to fatter homestead and buy organities for her stege laundry at work. This passed rapidly, and little or step or the violating and little or the lating and the violating and little or the lating and little

Stanton, about mulnight on Monday, a serstanton, about mulnight on Mon

Faral Collison on the D. & It. BINGEAUTON, N. Y., Dec. #1.-A freight for which P. de Bary a Co., of Warren street, are agents, have a desting-edition reputation in the production of the product of the produc

THROWN 75 FEET.

Her Son or Her Husband.

Both Under Arrest, and Each Charges payement below. Mr. Dilion d clines to either affirm or deny railing in front of the house below that the

No one, except Alexander McGowan, the tween the leaders of she Irish National party busband, and William C. McGowan, his son, can tell the true story of the frightful death of the wile and mother, and they tell contract called upon him at the Hoffman House he said ing stories; but all accounts agree that the woman was murdered.

ment of the present difficulties was arrived at | and who did not awake until it was all over. Both father and son were drunk.

> According to the statements made to the police to-day by the little girl, William's chief ccupation for the past year has been to get drunk and abuse his mother. He went to work for the first time in a year last week. Taccday he was paid off He spent the money for drunk, and if I was in the way he would sick me, "she related to an EVENING WORLD reporter this morning. "Last might he said awfully bad words to mother. He tore around so much that I got frightened, so I crawled into bed. 2 knew he was going to lick her again, and father coulin't prevent him because he was drunk, too.

Maggie is a bright girl, with red hair and thin, wan face. She looked emaciated for want of food, and her clothing was of the coarsest kind.

saleep.

then he also fell asteep. He was lying on the Of what happened after this nothing is known window. A minute elapsed, the neighbors say, be-several young men who were standing at the corner of Sixty-second street and Amsterdam avenue, and who rushed into the house and up Her strength, however, was rapidly failing. she could hold on no longer. Her voice became weaker and more indistinct, but one God's sake, help!" Then the body came down with a crash, and when the young man, who was Charles Gilmarin, of 456 West Fifty-second street, went

In the mean time John Rouch, John Tyson doors of the McGowan spartments, but re-

When they Enally forced an entrance with McGowan select on the floor in a drunken stuper, little Maggie asleep in bed, and the son suting in a chair, also apparently asleep.

"I didn't throw her out of the window at all," he said. "If she was thrown out the Little Maggie was given in charge of Officer Young McGowan is a tall, wiry fellow. He has a thir, victors lace, with small sunker eyes. In appearance he is a mixture of the PRICE ONE CENT. O'BRIEN TO LEAD?

Hurled from the Fifth Story to Death on the Sidewalk.

the Other with the Crime.

A terrible tragedy, a crime seldom equalled for atrocity and brutality, ushered in the New Year in the home of Alexander McGowan, st 161 West Sixty-second street, when shortly after minnight this morning Mrs. Martha Mo-Gowan, his wife, was thrown out of the window of their home and dashed to death on the

The McGowans live on the top story, the fifth, of the tall tenement, seventy-five feet from the sidewalk, and the woman's body railing was crushed into a mass of scraps.

The father accuses the son of the swin deed, and the son in turn declares that the McGowan, his wife and son, was Maggie, the fourteen-year-old daugnter, who was aslesp former is a gassitter, fifty years old, and the latter, who is thirty years of age, is employed Mr. O'Brien, he said, he had every resson to when he works, which has been very seldom, > drink, and last night, when he came home, his mother upbraided him.

"Brother used to best mother when he was would kill me. He often threatened to do it.

"Mother and brother were fighting for a long ime, I couldn't say just how long, for I fell By fighting, the child explained, she meant that they were quarrelling. "Father," she

"The doors were locked, and I couldn't get out. I knew that if I tried to go out brother tween the shrill screams and the shouts of murder and the fall. The unfortunate woman was hanging out of the window when she cried " Murder," and this attracted the attention of young man who remained below heard her say plainly, a last effort, for which she probably gathered all her remaining force: "Help! for to pick up Mrs. McGowan, she was a mangled and several companions, who had rushed to the rescue up the stairs, were pounding on the w re arraigned b fore Justice Ryan in the Yorkvale Police Court. They were, however, tough and tramp.